* The Chartered Financial Analyst® (“CFA”) designation requires the holder to pass three six-hour exams, possess a bachelor's degree (or equivalent, as assessed by CFA institute) and have 48 months of qualified, professional work experience. CFA charter holders are also obligated to adhere to a strict code of ethics and standards governing professional conduct.

 The Certified Financial Planner® (“CFP”) designation requires the holder to meet education, examination, experience and ethics requirements, and pay an ongoing certification fee. A bachelor's degree (or higher), or its equivalent in any discipline, from an accredited college or university is required. Students are required to complete course training in nine core financial topic areas, sit for a 10 hour CFP Board Certification Examination, acquire three years full-time or equivalent (2,000 hours per year) part-time work experience in the financial planning field and undergo an extensive background check – including an ethics, character and criminal check. To maintain the CFP certification, CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education (CE) accepted by CFP Board (including completion of 2 hours of CFP Board approved Ethics CE).

 The Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy® (“CAP”) designation is conferred by The American College to financial professionals with three years of advising individuals or charitable organizations in wealth and estate planning, financial planning, charitable planning, charitable giving, planned giving, investment management of charitable assets or non-profit or foundation management or services. Candidates must complete three graduate level courses equivalent of nine semester credit hours and pass an exam. Charter holders must complete 15 hours of continuing education every two years.
